TELECON

Ambassador Stabler/Secretary Kissinger

June 1, 1976

Time: 9:56 p.m.

RELEASED IN FULL

S: Two things if I may. The King thought if you were agreeable the best thing would be for you to see him Friday morning then he could take you off by himself for a chat. It would be up to him to maneuver the private meeting.

K: What time?

S: 9:00 because then he is going to the White House to say goodbye to the President.

K: He wants to see me. I know that EUR is opposed to this.

S: Maybe EUR is but not myself. The King talked to me about it...

K: I have to see whether they have scheduled some time for me with the President.

S: For that morning?

K: Yes, is he seeing the President three times?

S: He is seeing him in the morning then going by the White House to say goodbye at 9:45. If it would be agreeable to you you could have coffee and then he will arrange to take you off for a private talk.

K: O.K.

S: If this is alright I told him why don't you mention it to the Secretary when you see him tomorrow. He said he would do that. I think it is the best way.

K: O.K. Good. Does that give us enough time.

S: At 9:00 it would give you 35 minutes which I think would be enough.

K: O.K. Fine.

S: He may want to suggest a bit earlier. I think he will mention it to you tomorrow. The second thing is Ariolta (sp) wants to see you alone.

K: You act as if you had never been in this building. I only have to shoot Sonnenfeldt and Hartman. What's his point?

S: He feels more free to talk about things than if some of his people are hanging around.

K: Don't we have something scheduled?

S: There is a 4:30 scheduled. The only unclear thing was whether he wanted to see you alone or the usual.

K: Does he want the 4:30 alone?

S: Yes, he said 1/2 hour if that was agreeable with you.

K: That is fine.

S: We will set up a briefing of others about what happened in the NATO meeting.

K: What do you mean.

S: We have the usual post-NATO briefing of the Spanish.

K: Who will do it?

S: Get Arthur to do it, since you will be...

K: Let Arthur stress that I urged the admission of Spain.

S: Yes, that would be something that Ariolta (sp) would like to hear from you also.

K: O.K. That would be fine.

S: Thank you.
